Return Policy for Seats Purchased Directly from Ultimate Seats:

You need to ride 100 miles or more on the new seat to adjust to the new feel and riding position to really know how great it is!

If you read some of our customer comments on our web site, you will understand why the Ultimate seat is the ultimate for long distance comfort.

If you buy a seat directly from The Ultimate Seats Company, you have up to 14 days after receiving the seat to contact us for a return authorization.

Just keep the original box and be sure to keep the seat in perfect condition, no scratches, scuffs or tears.

If, for any reason, your new Ultimate seat is not to your liking, call us within 14 days of receipt and discuss the nature of the problem with a customer service representative. We will assign you a "Return authorization" or a forwarding address.

We will either exchange it for another model or refund you for your cost of the seat. You are responsible for the cost of the freight to you and the freight cost back to our warehouse.

Exceptions:

The return policy does not apply to any seats with custom colors or custom embroidery or without our standard 'Ultimate' logos. If a seat is returned and after our inspection it is found to have been damaged from your use the refund amount will be adjusted accordingly.

Beyond the 14 Day Return Policy:

Ultimate will not accept a returned seat beyond our 14-day notification period.

Seats Damaged in Shipping:

If you receive a seat that is apparently damaged from shipping when you open the box, it is your responsibility to immediately call the shipping company to file a damage claim. Be sure to keep the box and all packing material, since these may be needed in filing a claim.

Please call us also to report the damage and or if you have more questions 386-672-0288.

Return Policy from a Dealer:

If you buy an Ultimate seat from your local dealer or other supplier, the return policy is strictly between you and your dealer or supplier. Ultimate has no control over their return policies, so please be sure to ask your supplier about the details of their return policy before you make a purchase from them.
